NEW COLONIAL DANCING ACADEMY

Holiday Specials NEW YEAR'S NIGHT Dancing Until One O'Clock

> Refreshments Free. Admission

Extra Lady 25 Cents Program:

New York Rag. Pink Lady Waltzes. Bud Rag. Queen of Bohemia. Billy.

Dollar Princess. Lucy Lee-Schottische In the Land of Har-

Put On Your Old Grey Mysterious Rag. Fascinating Widow.

Steamboat Bill Every Little Move-

That Dreamy Italian 15. Happy Heinle. Spanish Waltz-Se-

Ada, My Sweet Potato. Moonlight-Dream of Heaven.

Shine On, Harvest Moon-Schottische, Chicken Reel. Flight of Fancy.

You Can't Make Me Stop Loving You. Schottische—Everyone Is in Love With Some

When the Daisies Alexander's Ragtime

27. Where Are the Scenes of Yesterday. Stop-Stop-Stop.

Home Waltz.

DON'T FORGET Dancing Every Night Except Fri-

NEW COLONIAL Regular Dances—Admission 50c; Extra Lady 25c.

Clean Clothes

Are a perfect delight and a real comfort to wear. It is almost impossible for a woman at home to get entire satisfaction from a home tub wash. The modern methods employed at this laundry guarantee cleanliness, perfect finish and satisfac-

Ogden Steam Laundry

Launderers and Dry Cleaners.

BADCON PHARMACY

Of Being Disappointed in your baking when

· Peery's

Crescent Flour

Don't send your children to the store for "A sack of Flour," but for A SACK OF PEERY'S CRESCENT FLOUR—there's a difference and it's all in favor of the flour named!

Read the Classified Ads.

STANDARD TELEPHONES

STANDARD EXCHANGE. Bell 55, to Communicate with any department acted business and visited with Ogden riends yesterday.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Grand Ball, given by Sego Lily Circle No. 174, W. O. W., at the Colonial Dancing Academy, Thursday, Dec. 28, 1911. 50c per couple, 25c Extra lady.

At the request of members of the family officers from the sheriff's office brought George Van Leuwen to the county jail. The man has been demented for sometime past and was but recently paroled from the mental hospital at Provo. He suffered a relapse yesterday and it was thought best to remove him to the hospital

B & G Butter has been on the Ogden market nearly a generation. It is as staple as sugar and is for sale by all first-class grocers.

W. Steed was a business visitor in the city yesterday from Tremon

Advertisers must have their copy for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear, in order to insure publication

Scott Nelson, of Binsham, is spending a few days with Ogden friends.

As a result of a derailment near Laramie, Wyo, yesterday, Union Pa-cific train No. 7 dld not arrive in this city until after 3 o'clock this morn-

C. G. Porter, of Morgan, was in the citl on business yesterday Aaron Redford, a young rancher of

Rupert, Ida., is in the city visiting

(Continued on Page Seven.)

ARREST SALT

Thirty minutes after his description had been telephoned to this city, A. N. Smith, a colored man who is wanted in Salt Lake City for burglary, was arrested at the Union depot here at about 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Detective George Wardlaw and Special Officer Peter Naylin.

Smith was about to board the Over-land limited for Cheyenne, Wyo, he having already purchased his ticket and checked his bagsage to that point A search of the local pawnshops re-sulted in the discovery of a $125 dia mond ring which Smith had pawned for $50. It is supposed that this fur-nished the funds with which he purchased his ticket to Cheyenne.

The diamond ring and a scarf pin, with four small diamonds, are said to have been stolen from a Sait Lake colored man by Smith. No trace of the scarf pin has yet been found. In the trunk and suit case belonging to the man was found a quantity of clothing and sliverware, all of which is believed to be loot secured by Smith during burglary operations. Some of the clothing belonged to the same man from whom the jewelry was stolen.

The Salt Lake police were notified of Smith's arrest and officers will be up today to take the men back to the scene of his alleged crimes.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back for an Old One-How It is Done in Ogden.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Ogden citizen.

Mrs. Rebecca Hartley, 2806 Adams ave. Ogden, Utah, says "The public statement a member of my family gave in 1906, endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills, was correct in every particular and you may continue its publication. I used this remedy and it did me a world of good. I have since recom-mended Doan's Kidney Pills to many other people."

For sale by all dealers, Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United

Remember the name-Doan's-and

POLICEMEN INJURED IN BIG EXPLOSION

BUFFALO, Dec. 27.—Policemen William A. Hearn and John Flynn were searching a house in Fay street early today for Paul Lutz, suspected of having made a murderous assault on a woman, when an explosion wrecked the building and hurled the officers into the street.

Half an hour before the police had been notified that a murder had been committed at 92 Fay street. The officers found that Mrs. Ida Schultz, 55 years old, had been beaten on the lead and was dying. Hearn was badly burned and bruised by the explo-sion but Flynn escaped with a few bruises.

++++++++++++ EMPRESS DOWAGER

CALLS A MEETING

Peking, Dec. 27.—The Em-press Dowager Ye Ho Na La has summoned the leading princes of the imperial clan to meet Premier Yuan Shi Kai to discuss the proposal made at the Shanghai conference. It is considered not improbable that Yuan Shi Kai will enshortly to withdraw from active politics.

+++++++++++ Read the Classified Ads.

THE MASSACRES

LONDON, Dec. 27. The Russian government has decided upon stern measures to sup-press disorders at Tabriz and other disturbed Persian towns. The dislocation of the tele-graph lines makes it impossible to get a reliable narrative of the outbreaks, yet it cannot be doubted that a situation of the gravest complexity has

As reports of Russian progress in Persia and stories of the indiscriminate killing of natives in Tabriz and Resht, and of the destruction of Persia's constitutional government under Russian menace, continue to reach England, the people are becoming increasingly disquieted at the British government's complicity, which the foreign secretary, Sir Edward Grey, thinks is a matter of policy and com-pelled by the Anglo-Russian agree-

Doubts also have been increased as whether Persian independence ever will be restored to even the feeble status it had before this last assault by Russia. If parliament were sit-ting, undoubtedly there would be se-vere questioning of the government on this subject and an arraignment of the foreign office.

The Times is the only newspaper that strongly supports the government and it expresses considerable uneasi-ness over Russia's intentions as hinted in St. Petersburg reports. The Manchester Guardian, the ablest and most influential provincial Liberal pa per, deplores British responsibility and questions whether the government could not have taken some stand earlier, but fears that it is now too late. In short, the whole affair is re pugnant to liberal sentiment.

The Persian committee, composed prominent Englishmen interested Persian affairs, has received the following telegram from the provincial assemblyman at Tabriz, sent through the Persian society of Constantino

"On December 21 Russian troops attacked and seized the administra-tion buildings. They trampled school children under foot and killed and despoiled innocent men and women. They also looted the shops. The inhabitants, after extraordinary forbear-ance, began to defend themselves and forced the Russians to evacuate the vernment offices

On December 22 the Russians bombarded the city until sunset, the con-sternation increasing hourly. On December 23, in consequence of orders from the central government to cease fighting, the inhabitants took no steps to defend themselves, but the inhabitants took no Russians renewed the hombardment firing from the environments of their consulate at women and other innocent persons. The wounded or made captive the wives and children of many respectable citizens and set fire to numerous buildings and mosques.

"The inhabitants still remained quiet on December 25, but the ferocity of the Russians greatly increased." They killed many women and children and a large number of buildings were burned by them. If they do not desist tomorrow from their savage attacks. the inhabitants will be compelled to defend themselves.

"We beg you to communicate this telegram to the principal newspapers and influential centers of Europe"

Belgian May Succeed Shuster. TEHERAN, Dec. 27.-It is understood that the regent and cabinet de sire the appointment of an American F. E. Cairns, the principal associate of Mr. Shuster, as the new treasurer general of Persia. It is more likely, however, that M. Mornard, the Belgian ex-director of customs in Persia some months ago made himself prominent by his hostility to Mr

Shuster, will receive the position.

The British consul at Sheiraz, W. A. Smart, who was wounded in a fight near Kazeroon, is lying in a caravansary. Medical assistance has been sent him. The consul was being escorted to his post by 100 Indian So-wars, when an attack was made by 800 Kashgal tribesmen. The Indians were forced to retreat to Kazeroon, leaving the consul behind and for a time much anxiety was felt concerning his fate.

Cut the Telephone Wires. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 27.—The latest reports from Tabriz announce that the telephone line to Julia has been cut. Julfa is a small town in Trans Caucasia on the Aras river, less than a hundred miles from Tabriz. It was from this point that the Russian reinforcements were dispatched to Tabriz several days ago.

About 200 Causasians fidals, including a number of leaders, fled that night to Karadagh with the intention, it is believed, of crossing the Russian frontier. A Russian guard has been placed over the Russian bank and the citadel over which the Russian flag flies, is occupied by a Russian rifle regiment.

The Fifth chassieurs, with an artillery detachment, has forced its way through to Baghichemal, a suburb of Tabriz, to join the Russian forces

There is one resolution you may make without any fear of breaking it. Here it is:

"I will buy everything I need at Culley's during 1912."

It's a good resolution and Culley promises to do his part in making it worth while to keep it strictly. Such a resolution may be as good as life insurance to you,

Everything in the Drug Line. Washington Avenue. Ogden, Utah

ncamped there. There were severa skirmishes along the road on murch from Julia and at Sunset to-night artillery and machine gun fire could be heard in the distance, Resent American Action on Treaty WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Except-ing as indicating the extent of Russian resentment at the action of the United States in abrogating the treaty of 1832, the introduction in the duma today of the bill attacking the American trade with Russia is not regarded with much concern in official circles here.

Even if the measure should be adopted by the duma it would require the approval of the imperial council and of the emperor himself to be-come law. In that case it could not take effect before Jan. I, 1913, be-cause of the continuance until that date of the present treaty with its favored-nation clause.

Indications are that negotiations for a new treaty will not be undertaken seriously before September. In the interim the Russian general elections will have been held and the great American quadriennial political conventions will have passed into his-tory. Removed from all likelihood of political influence in either counit is felt that negotiations then can be conducted in a calm and judicial manner.

That there may be two treaties instead of one, is regarded as probable One of these conventions would deal entirely with matters of trade and ommerce, and the operation of its favored-nation clause, if one were embodied, would be confined to these subjects.

The other treaty would relate pureto matters of citizenship and naturalization, which would, of course, in-volve some treatment of the Jewish question. The adoption of this course nay be suggested by the Russian government

Declare Situation Very Grave.

LONDON, Dec. 28.-The London papers print editorials dealing with the gravity of Persian affairs and the necessity of action on the outrage against the British consul at Shiraz and of taking adequate measures to uphold British prestige, in view of the evident impotency of the Persian officials to maintain order.

Great anxiety is betrayed over the outcome of the complicated situation that has arisen, and doubts are expressed as to whether it will be possible to preserve Persia as an inde-pendent buffer state between Russia and India

The radical papers are dismayed at the drastic measures Russia proposes to take at Tabriz and Enzell, which, they declare, point to a policy of an-nihilation, for which Great Britain, under the Angio-Russian agreement. will be held responsible throughout the east.
The Teheran correspondent of the

The Teberan correspondent of the Times telegraphs.

"Infantry from Jask and all available ships, it is said, have been ordered to Bushire, a sea port 125 miles from Shiraz, and a British punitive expedition is thought likely.

"The people of Teberan appeared to be cowed by Russian excesses at Tabriz. The ministers alarmed at the anger of the populace have issued an announcement that Tabriz will be held a week bence, but that announce ment is not believed.

"The chief condidate for treasure: general is Ameer Mujabid, the bakh-tlarl, whose knowledge of arithmetic s defective, but who is reported have the deepest pocket of all hi tribesmen

Russian telegrams from Tabriz yes terday reported that fighting had bee resumed. Several persons were killed and several wounded at the Russian consulate in that city

SALT LAKE, Dec. 27.-Jack London, the well-known writer and propagandist of socialism, and his wife are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. A. Culmer at their home on C street

Mr. and Mrs. London arrived from California Monday and will remain at the Culmer home until Thursday, when they will resume their journey to New York.

"This is the first time I was ever in Salt Lake." said Mr. London last night, "and I am much impressed with the beauty of its surroundings. My wife and I stopped off here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Culmer, who are old and dear friends of ours. Weather conditions are much different from Callfornia and it is quite a sudden charge. fornia, and it is quite a sudden change from the warmth and sunshine to the

Mr. London still maintains the disegard of conventional dress that bas characterized him since he first made his reputation as a writer of interest-ing stories. For him there are no such garments as a stiff-bosomed shirt and a high, stiff collar. He prefers the comfort of a negligee shirt and a low, soft collar adorned with a plain black four-in-hand tle

Prefers a Sweater.
It is recorded of him that on one occasion when he was invited to address a woman's club in Oakland, Cal. he appeared wearing a sweater, which was a great shock to some of the con-ventional matrons.

Most of yesterday afternoon was spent by Mr and Mrs. London in the studio of Mr. Culmer, viewing the many valuable landscapes that Mr. Culmer has painted. Views of Alaska from studies made by Mr. Culmer last summer were of particular interest to Mr. London, for it was in Alaska that he gained material for his first novels. "In my one year's experience in Alaska," said he "I found suggestions for fourteen books."

Mr. London is a difficult man to interview for newspaper publication. It is not because he has a disinclination to talk, but owing to the fact that he is essentially a writer. If you ask him a question he will readily answer, but he does not volunteer anything beyond the limit of the answer or suggest other questions

Not Given to Talking. "I never was any success as a lec-turer," he said, "for the reason that am no sable to get up before an audi ence and talk without being confused but if you ask me a question I have no difficulty in finding words with which

Notwithstanding he is visiting. Mr. London continues his work. The table at which he sat last night while talking was covered with notes, the most of which had been classified and done

ing. After I have written 2,000 words I stop for the day. This usually takes me about two hours. I never walt for an inspiration before beginning I start in, and when a word or phrase to express the desired shade of thought does not come to me quick! I light a eigarette and wait for it. write my 2,000 words nearly every in the year, only taking a day off occasionally.

Busy on New Story. o which I have given the title, 'The Valley of the Moon. By the way, to-day is the first time I have announced the title. It is a story based on the theme of back to the soil. It opens with the love affair of a man and woman in the city. They are tollers living under the usual conditions of poorly paid workers in the city.

desert the city for the farm and-but I won't tell you any more about it Mr. London said that although he had written many short stories based on his travels in the south sea islands he had not yet exhausted his studies 'I made fourteen stories out of my Alaska experience of one year, and I ought to get proportionately as many or more out of my two years' voyage among the islands of the sea, lands rich in romance. Speaking of David Grief, one of the principal characters in his south sea stories, Mr. London said: "He is a omposite and is not overdrawn. There are many men of his character in the Islands. He is a true type picture. Some of my island critics have complained that I toned things down in stead of coloring them highly. These stories represent life as it is lived in the far-away corners of the world Down to Primal Passion. As is well known, Mr. London is ar ardent admirer of the prize ring and has written several books around it. notably "The Game" and "A Piece of Beefsteak." In "The Game" he enleavored to show the glamor of the ring and in "A Plece of Beefsteak" he fried to bring out its harshness and brutality, without its glamour.

When the fighting game can be made a sport," said he, "instead of being permeated with the rottenness of gambling and crookedness, it will be great game, just as it used to be but now the outlook for it is mighty

From the prize ring Mr. London was led to the abysmal brute, one of his characterizations. Of him he said "He was just a composite, like many other characters have been. He die his work, I believe. I may have some thing else in his line after a while."

Praises Socialism.
Asked in regard to the effect of the esult of the recent municipal election in Los Angeles on the advance of So-cialism in California, Mr. London said that although the Socialist candidate for mayor was defeated, the result was full of hope. "We cast 50,000 votes, which is most encouraging So-cialism, which is a reflex of economic conditions, will continue to advance until its ideals are realized. All the leaders in the movement can be blot-ted out, but the movement will go on in its irresistible progress.

Mr. London no longer advocates So-cialism from the lecture platform. He aid: "In addition to my inability as public speaker I am troubled a great cal with a poor throat, suffering considerable from bronchitis. I found that I would have to quit lecturing and content myself with my efforts through my pen, with which I can acomplish more

Mr and Mrs. London will make no orther stop between this city and

To My Friends and Acquaintances in Ogden den City and Weber County.

Having purchased the properties of the Elk Coal company I am now organizing a company for the purpose of operating this valuable property. This property consists of 2,160 acres pat-ented coal land, containing over 500. 000,000 tons of coal, together with few sections of leased land, also com plete machinery, tipple, tools, etc., to operate the same for a capacity of about 700 tons of coal per day; also the townsite of Elkol, containing be tween 30 and 40 buildings, a complete system of telephones and lines and everything complete to operate this splendid property.

I now offer to you stock in this com-pany at the rate of $1.00 per share. The total stock issue at this time will be 300,000 shares, which will be suf-ficient to pay the purchase price and accrued expenses in the consumma-tion of this purchase, besides leaving several thousand dollars for a working capital. Nearly half of this amoun has already been subscribed. This of fer will be open to you until January 15th, which will increase in value at the rate of $2.00 to $3.00 per share a year, besides the prospects of liberal lyidends, now is your opportunity. This is not a wildcat scheme, but a property which is being at present operated at a good fair profit by per-sons who have leased this property The quality of coal is good and a ready market is found for all its pres-

For further information call on me at my office, 239 24th Street, Ogden, J. W. F. VOLKER, Ogden, December 17, 1911.

FILES ARTICLES

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the county clerk's office by the J. C. Nye Agency company, the incorporators being J. C. Nye, president; Robert C. Nye, vice president; Fred M. Nye, director, Marie Hartog, secretary and treasurer and J. W. Reeves.

The company plans to do an insurance business, the capital stock being fixed at $10,000. The place of business is given as Ogden and the tenure of the incorporation is fifty

THE EARL OF PAWTUCKET

"Don't make me out too utterly asinine," Clarence D'Orsay is reported as having told Augustus Thomas when they were discussing the staging of a production fitted to the character of

First Excursion to METROPOLIS

The New Town in the Heart of the New Reclamation Project in Eastern Nevada, Takes Place

Friday, Dec. 29th

HOTEL METROPOLIS

The Modern $75,000.00 Hostelry Will Be Formally Opened on That Date-Special Train from Wells to Metropolis and Return.

Round Trip, Ogden to Wells, Nev., via Southern Pacific $9.35-Train Leaves Ogden 6:40 A. M. Friday, Returning Saturday Morning.

New Years' Eve

San Francisco $30 Round Trip

A special holiday excursion will be run from Ogden and Salt Lake City to San Francisco and return

SALE DATE December 28th Final Limit 29 Days. Stopovers allowed both ways at all points in California. Western Pacific

A World's Wonderway.

For full information apply to F. FOUTS, Agent :: :: :: Reed Hotel, Ogden

"Special"

Ask for "Special" Crow and Hermitage Bourbon at all first-class bars, hotels and cafes. This whiskey is too old to be bottled in bond and is the finest in the world-nothing added - nothing taken away - guaranteed and bottled by the distillers, W. A. Gaines & Co., Frankfort, Ky., expressly for-long as the vehicle provided meets, and in making real one's preconceived with the approval of the fickle public, and upon this question there could be no argument after witnessing the happy expression upon the faces and listening to the comment of the goodsized audience as i filed out of the Ogden theater last evening.

FRED J. KIESEL CO., Distributors, Ogden, Utah.

"The Earl of Pawtucket" is nothing if not comedy but it is a comedy of the refined, subdued sort that finds expression in exhibitation and low-toned chuckles rather than hearty laughter or boisterous hilarity. In short, Mr D'Orsay's work is so quiet and reserved that you almost feel abashed at discovering anything to laugh at in a character so apparently lacking in resource and so helpless. The story is a capital little tale, full of charming situations and equally replete with ludicrous complications, and deals with the infatuation of Lord Cardington for a young woman whom he follows across the Atlantic. Ar-rived on this side of the "big pond" he assumes the name of bis friend. Montgomery Putnam. To make things interesting it develops that the young lady is the divorced wife of the afore-said Putnam, and the incognito nobleman suddenly finds himself confronted with all sorts of difficulties, including alimony collectors and officers who believe Lord Cardington has murdered Into this tangled web D'Orsa plunges with the utmost sangfroid, meeting all obstacles and disposing of them with a gentlemanly uncon cern that is captivating and emerging in the end by winning his fair lady's hand and accepting the fruits of vic tory modestly, as a true Briton should.

D'Orsay's commanding figure and face remind one of the published like-nesses of Lord Kitchener, but his mannerisms and bland placidity are all his own and defy description. His habit of dropping his monocle when his British calmness is ruffled a wee bit and the manner of twirling his large blonde mustache are very mucl D'Orsav and the onlooker experience up in neat bundles. In reply to the quaint Englishman. Don't worquestion. "What is your method of work?" he said. "After I have written up my notes I never revise my Whether this conversation really work. The first copy always stands occurred or not doesn't matter, so Cardington—he is the Egiton himself.

ideas of what a gentlemanly English-man is, says and does, he comes about as near revealing the art and originality of acting as it is possible for one to imagine. We liked him (for he is a very lov-

We liked him (for he is a very lov-able chap in his serious moments) and the play; likewise his supporting company, every one, and the effective stage settings, which contributed so much toward the merit of the per-formance. It is a brilliant play, ex-quisitely portraved, and the result is two and a half hours of unalloyed happiness and delight. happiness and delight. The audience was appreciative last night, not demonstrative, but still diserning and responsive, and accepted Mr. D'Orsay and his capable cast at their true worth. Katherine Emmett, the leading woman, teased her lover with the ardor and mischlevousness of one who really enjoyed it. She is a woman of absolute charm and quite as capable as she is beautiful.

Louise Sydmeth as the maiden aunt who discovers a riot, Susanna Rush-holme and Ernest A Elton were others who alted in developing the scenes and helping the fun along. G. H. Stewart was most pleasing in the role of the walter.

The rest of the company did everything they were called upon to do ac-thing they were called upon 10-do acceptably and appeared to have been selected carefully for the parts in which they appeared.

"The Earl of Pawtucket" is not new, and it has been said that Mr. D'Orsay has not been so successful in zone of the roles which he has essayed since his first appearance as Lord Cardington. Perhaps "its so, At any rate. ton. Perhaps 'tis so. At any rate, the writer, for one, is guite willing to witness the play as often as it appears here, so long as Mr. D'Orsay portrays the title role.

Direct Wires to All Tracks Phones Bell 313; Ind. 78. 2469 Grant,

Ogden Turf Exchange